

Six Senses Con Dao, Vietnam

Six Senses Con Dao is located on the principal island of the Con Dao archipelago, off the south-east coast of mainland Vietnam. The resort's contemporary architecture, the footprint of which reflects a traditional fishing village, compliments the outstanding natural beauty of its beachfront setting.

- Created from reclaimed teakwood and sustainably sourced materials
 - Just 50 private pool villas with uncompromised luxury standards
 - Village-style market hosts dining, drinks and shopping experiences
 - World renowned holistic Six Senses Spa

ACCOMMODATIONS

50 contemporary sea-view pool villas with outdoor bathrooms are styled single-level and duplex, and offer 1, 2, 3 and 4-bedrooms. The efficient architectural design provides for natural ventilation in the living areas, whilst providing the choice of air-conditioning in the bedrooms.

DINING

By the Beach is perched atop sand dunes with river and sea views and serves Asian Fusion and Western dishes. There is a Wine Cellar and Chef's Table. In a recreated fishing village market is Deli'cious with a range of tasty treats for dining-in or taking-out, and the Vietnamese Kitchen.

SIX SENSES SPA

Providing relaxing and revitalizing experiences, the Six Senses Spa offers therapeutic treatments to balance the senses. It focuses on health, relaxation, beauty, stress reduction and recuperation from the everyday pressures of a hectic world.

LEISURE ACTIVITIES

Six Senses Con Dao delivers adventure, culture, sport, and excursions. On site is the magnificent softly curving pool by the beach and a menu of watersports including diving and snorkeling. Take a boat trip to a nearby island. There are hiking and trekking, heritage excursions and even cooking classes.

HOW TO GET THERE

Arrive at Ho Chi Minh City - Tan Son Nhat International Airport (SGN), then take a 45 minute commercial or chartered plane to nearby Co Ong regional airport (VCS) for transfer to the resort. Distance from Ho Chi Minh City to Con Dao is around 230 kilometers or 145 miles.
