PLACES OF INTEREST

Da Lat: (1475m above sea level)

Da Lat's specific sights are pine wood (forming the name: "City of thousands of pine trees") with twisting roads and tree marigold (Vietnamese: dã quỳ) blossom in the winter. The city's temperate weather stands in contrast to Vietnam's otherwise tropical climate. Mist covering the valleys almost year-round leads to its name "City of eternal spring". Many reminders of Dalat's colonial past can be seen in the hundreds of European style villas, chalets and other buildings still standing around town.

To reach Da Lat it is an one way 4hrs car drive from Nha Trang (sea level) you will go up to 1475 whilst enjoying the changing nature and the amazing waterfalls.

A sleepy small fishing village where time seemed to stop in front of the Pearl farm/ Mainland reception..

Loc Tho Pagoda (Orphanage)

This is an orphanage in the country side of Nha Trang, where Six Senses Ninh Van Bay supports as one of its social responsibilities. The young children are always excited to have visitors from far away so that they can practice their English.
